

Small crowd assembles on a brisk morning Thursday for a board cutting ceremony at the new Coast-to-Coast store in Heber City. Manager Tom Latimer cuts through board, center.

Coast to Coast Celebrates Grand Opening

HEBER CITY—A board cutting ceremony was held to open the new Coast-to-Coast Hardware Store.

Store Manager, Tom Lattimer said that a board cutting was more appropriate for a hardware stores Grand Opening.

Coast-to-Coast representatives were on hand to help with the celebration. Tom and Diane became the managers with the help of Tom's father, Russ, who owns a Coast-to-Coast store in American Fork.

The Coast-to-Coast chain offers top quality merchandise, and the assurance that you're receiving the finest in hardware goods.

Tom said, in a breakfast celebration, that he was glad to be working in Heber Valley and has already become acquainted with a large number of residents. He extended an invitation to everyone to come and browse through the store and get acquainted.

Tom said that a dream he's always had, is to be an owner of a Coast-to-Coast store like his father.

The Grand Opening celebration continues with prizes and refreshments.

Phil Wagner, Regional Director of Ducks Unlimited, congratulates newly organized leaders on becoming part of Ducks Unlimited. Group leadership is (l to r) Mark Connolly, Publicity, John Prince, Chairman, Courtland Nelson, Dinners, and

Ducks Unlimited Forms County Chapter

HEBER CITY—(KDP) A banquet last Saturday evening at Wasatch Mountain State Park was the scene for the formation of a local chapter of Ducks Unlimited.

Founded in 1937, Ducks Unlimited has to date completed over 2000 wetland restoration projects designed to protect nesting and breeding areas for North American waterfowl. In its forty-five year history DU has raised more than $163 million for waterfowl conservation. Current membership stands at over 400,000.

According to the local office

HEARING TEST FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

A FREE hearing test will be given every 2nd TUESDAY of the month at the Heber City Center from 9 a.m. to Noon. No obligation.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES:

Batteries at Discount Prices - FREE Cleaning and adjusting of aids